

Confidential Statement for Sponsored Studies at USC

If you are receiving financial support from a source other than your own personal funds (e.g., parents, family, etc.), then you must submit this form, which certifies that your sponsor will support your education and living expenses at USC. An I-20 will not be issued without this document. If you have multiple sponsors, USC will need a signed form from each sponsor.

It is not necessary to submit this form if:

You are receiving funding from a major company, government or international organization. Instead, those organizations should provide a formal letter of sponsorship on official letterhead.

OR

You are receiving a scholarship from USC.

Please refer to our Financial Documentation page for general information. To learn what constitutes an acceptable or unacceptable financial statement, please visit our guidelines page.
